

UNITED CHURCH

So we as ministers of the U.C., United College is the Church in higher education and our undertaking of the Church is that it is the instrument of Grace and we are convinced that in the present service Grace has ceased to operate. It appears that Grace has ceased to operate in the following:

Our urgent plea is that the College again become the instrument of Grace involving as that does penitence & reconciliation so that the obvious divisions between the Minneapolis the admin., and certain professors are released & also the divisions within the faculty, the student body, the Principles & the academic community & the separation between the Church & the general public, unless the College does again become the instrument of Grace, it can no longer represent the Church in higher education.

We recognize that in any community there are tensions arising out of differences of opinion and that the Church has always been able to contain such tensions.
