MORNING WORSHIP

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1979

EVENING BROADCAST SERVICE
(Heard over CKWX at 8 p.m.)

THE COMMUNITY OF FAITH GATHERS

Silent Meditation: Christians gather for worship in brokenness, in suffering, in thankfulness, in dedication. Our worship is the living drama of our lives before God. We gather in praise, we confess our sins, we hear the word and we respond.
God is present. God acts in the world through you, through me, through all the people. We are called to follow Jesus.

TO ACKNOWLEDGE OUR NEED

Our Confession
Leader: Life is not all joy and happiness. There is much wrong in our world and much that is not right with our lives.

Community: It is hard for us to recognize ourselves as sinners but when we remember the life and ministry of Jesus we know we have a long way to go in living
the Gospel fully.

Leader: In the spirit of prayer I call you to confession.
We confess to you, O God, that we are not the people we would like to be. You light has come to us in Jesus yet we've turned away and walked in darkness. We have tried to love as Christ would have us love, yet we let our differences hinder us.
We say things that hurt others, we remain silent when we ought to speak. We struggle with the call to be your servant. Hear us in our silence now as we confess both the unworthy things we have done and the needful things we've left undone.
