

1st Church Broadcast - Feb. 14, 1970MUSIC: _____ IN & EST. FOR 1 VSTHEN FADE TO BG UNDER VOICE.VOICE 1:

If we continue to splinter, how will we be able to tell good from evil?
 A private search for the good <sup>turns</sup> ~~puts~~ up a morality that looks very much like the searcher. Without some engagement with another how will <sup>a person</sup> ~~he~~ ever become aware of the evil hidden in his <sup>own</sup> goodness?

The apostle Paul pointed out that God's wisdom looks like foolishness to man's wisdom. This suggests that it is our wisdom which get us into into our deepest trouble, and our righteousness which gets us into our deepest evil. How can our broken wisdom and goodness be rectified if we neglect dialogue with one another? Especially with those who differ from us. Good in a vacuum is a monster. That's our theme tonight on 1st Church Sunday Night. I'm Glen Baker, and later in the broadcast we'll join Jack Shaver <sup>with</sup> ~~and~~ the congregation at 1st United Church, Gore & Hastings, in downtown Vancouver. On this first portion of our broadcast you'll hear the music of <sup>* Medical Mission Sisters</sup> ~~* Billy Vaughn Trips~~ <sup>* Ray Stevens</sup> ~~* Billy Vaughn Trips~~, <sup>you'll hear</sup> news of the church, and a dialogue with Dr. Joseph McLelland, Professor of the Philosophy of Rel Religion at McGill University.

MUSIC

:

NEWS:

:

Rod & Glen DialogueMUSIC:

:

VOICE 2

:

Rod Intro to TapeTAPE:

:

McLelland Interview : (End Cue .... "especially if its neighborly") 6'45"MUSIC:VOICE 1:

I'm Glen Baker and this is 1st Church Sunday Night, coming to you now from 1st United Church, Gore @ Hastings, in downtown Vancouver.