I'm Jack Shaw:

I won't be preaching tonight

Our Quartette will be presenting The Cantata The Seven Lost Words of Christ.

By Theodore Dubois ~

I don't know how early it was in the life of the Church that these seven lost words came to have a special place in the liturgy.

In many traditions; a long Good Friday service is held which consists of Meditations on these Seven statements that ~~one records as having~~ ~~been spoken by Jesus as he was being crucified~~. They have been set to music by many composers down the years.

The sentences are gathered from all four of the Gospel records and in Dubois Cantata appear in this order —

- ① Father Forgive them for they know not what they do — this spoken as he is being crucified
- ② Verily I tell you I will be with you always — spoken to one of the men who was being crucified with him — one of the last words remember me —
- ③ Women behold thy now do the Lord's will: Mary
— Beloved Disciple —

BROADCAST

Call to Worship

It's the eve of passion week

When people first put down what they remembered of Jesus a large part of what they recorded took place during the last week of his life. These were the events which most gathered up his significance ~~the events~~. It was the passion of our Lord which reached the depth of their predicament with healing

Tonight we recount a portion of that passion ^{new words} as our Quartette presents in song the seven last words of Christ,

May you receive blessing as you listen

First we will all sing " Ride on ride on in majesty — no. 449.

Invocation

O LORD

As we hear your last words sung
Tonight

Ride on to conquer our sin and make death captive.

through J.C. —
