A CAMPING HOLIDAY for those who need it most is provided at Camp Fircom, now in its 51st year of operation. The camp is on Gambier Island in Howe Sound. The summer programme is run by First United Church. "Campership" money is available for those who can't pay all the fee, thanks to a grant from the United Community Services and contributions from church friends. If you know of children or whole families who would profit from a week at Camp Fircom, please give them a brochure (available on the literature rack) and encourage them to contact the Camp Fircom Registrar, Mrs. E. Francis, at First United Church, 681-8365.
