CREATION STORY
FROST - Page 550 - TWO LEADING LIGHTS
1:16 17

I never happened to contrast
The two in the celestial coast
Whose prominence has been so vast.

The sun is satisfied with days,
He never has, in any phase
That I have heard of, shone at night.
And yet he is a power of light
And could in one burst overwhelm
And dwarf the darkest realm.

By right of eminent domain.
He has the greatness to refrain.

The moon, for all her light & grace
Has never learned to know her place.

The wisest astronomer

Have set the dark aside for her.

But there are many nights I thought dear
She doesn't bother to appear.

Some lunatic or lunar whim

Will bring her out - diminished dim
To set herself beside the sun.

As Elaba came to Solomon.

It may be charitably guessed

Companion is not her guest.

Some rumor of his wishing ring

That changes winter into spring

Has brought her merely visiting.

An irresponsible divinity

Permeating on her femininity.

Delightful - 80W
NOON

And God made
Two great lights
The greater light
To rule the day
and the lesser light to rule the night.

as though
We to keep WORD OF GOD OPERATIVE

do enough connecting,

as though
WORD OF GOD ~~doesn't~~ do its own work

as though - we had to keep on top of the word of God

as though The word of God holds no surprises.

Passing Glimpse

A PASSING GLIMPSE

I often see flowers from a passing car
That are gone before I can tell what they are.

I want to get out of the train & go back
To see what they were beside the track.

I know all the flowers I am sure they weren't,
Not fire-weed loving where woods have burnt.

Not bluebells growing at tunnel mouth -
Not lupin living on sand & drought.

Was something brushed across my mind
That no one on earth will ever find?

Heaven gives its glimpses only to those
Not in a position to look too close.

Whimsy: (5330g) struck me too.
