

CALL TO WORSHIP

IF GOD is seeking us and we need him - How is it that we miss each other? Can it be that we are running from him, --- or looking for him in what he is not,

Can we be still & open long enough to be found & known. →

INVOCATION : —

What a strange company we are — A few here in the Church in doors & our voices, ^{plus} scattered listeners ^{across the land} — some by intention, some by accident, ~~none~~ way of knowing one another. By the Miracle of Grace open our hearts to one another and create us a community of worship.

O LORD

Prayer: IF we were aware it would make any difference, our prayers might be very different than this.

AS IT IS - we know not how to pray as we ought.
 Here in your love - and scattered in our homes & cars & boats, we grope with ourselves, waiting for our adoption as your children. Awaken in all our hearts the hope that your spirit is interested for us with goodness that cannot be uttered.

Open our hearts to one another, and to those you have given to our care.

Open our eyes to your activity hidden ~~even~~ now in the midst of our lives.

We are so afraid to love - yet that is where our health is.

Overwhelm us with the LOVE that coals our fear -
