CALL TO WORSHIP

Ages ago, Our Fathers + Mothers Took a grove of trees on a hill
to be The dwelling place of God,

Ancient + new religious songs
sing of the loneliness of The place where God is met.

If God is in Christ —
How do you sing of his meeting place?

INVOCATION

~~Indeed~~ OUR Father,

We are indeed The church before the end.

We are not what we yet shall be

We have not become The promise
we held out in former years.

BUT you are faithful and you have called us

OUR promise rests on that same Foundation.

Called to be Saints: -

Ever since The United Church of Canada began to Breathe itself in various quarters.

got ready for its 50th anniversary found myself being driven in opposite directions: -

① Roots matter

deep wound - discover - where I'm from.
 go back over ground.

② Recollection painful - all I did not become.
 all promise - did not blossom.

Especially US right now: -

① Not where or X₂ began -

② Split

Passage 1 Cor : -

Union - is X demanded?

Now : - " Called to be Saints."

That Congregation at Corinth :

Split favorite preacher! - eating meat.

Drank among leaders.

Flashy show at meals. First eat it all

Drank at evening.

Quarrels with Paul's friends - Beggery match

Holds that they battle.

Holds it up in hope.

Called to Be

First United Church

I don't know a slave :

Beggar's rights - what it's called to be

Look at us : -

I haven't got anything beyond a faint notion what we owe to each other.

Have you ^{any of} anything more than a fragment of a notion of what we owe to each other to each other -

God has a glorious notion of what we are called to be to each other

Holds us together

Holds us up in hope.
