

Organ Prelude

It was the apostle Paul who said
 We know not how to pray as we ought - But the spirit makes intercession for us with sighs too deep for words.

Introit - Holy Holy Holy

Our Father - we want our worship to be real - what if we don't feel like it?
 your Spirit is going to help us work a big thing in us you are going to love to overwhelm us through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us to say

Prayer: —

OUR Father: —

We bring broken lives —

We're depressed by them.

People we love don't do what we wish and we disappoint & bring them.

We're not good at much —

& people don't want what we've said at where the world hurts most — we can do nothing about.

In our world we feel guilty about feeling joy and guilty for feeling depressed.

We bring the things we mean most.

and the things we mean most — even when they ~~are~~ faithfully performed, ~~to~~ contribute to the hurt of others.

Central to our lives somehow is a serious fault

Its remedy would be a ~~single~~ ^{single} of supposing all ~~other~~ ^{other}

Our Father — How our cry

Breath — the power of cancelled SIN.

OUR FATHER

YOUR FORGIVENESS CREATES US AGAIN.

What a thing it is to be born again:

It is to love again the guineas of our lives to ~~stand~~ be stood on our feet

whole & open again

in the midst reality that make us our life

That is what it is to be overwhelmed by a creator

(S410b) - reverse

If your SPIRIT would blow HIS life into us.
Our life would make a very different music.

OUR FATHER

We remember those who are in our hearts now -

We ~~want~~ ^{want} you to place on our hearts
Those you love in mind for us.

We open our hearts →

To your loving ache for all sins & sorrows, yours - SINNING WORLD.

SO POUR YOUR LOVE INTO OUR HEARTS

Our grief becomes a hymn of glory
