COLLEGE AND CAMPUS SUNDAY

We are pleased to have as our pulpit guest this morning, the Rev. M. John V. Shaver, United Church Chaplain to the University of British Columbia.

Mr. Ferry is in Toronto attending the Annual meeting of the Board of Publications, and will return towards the end of this week.

✓ We are also pleased to welcome the Independent Order of Oddfellows No. 78 and the members of the Rebecca Lodge No. 79, to our Service this morning. We sincerely hope you will enjoy worshipping with us.

Call to worship:

you did not choose me but I have chosen
you, that you should go and bring forth fruit - and that your fruit should remain.

Almighty God, whose love this is,
and by whose call we have come,
prepare our hearts to receive thy word.
Open our hearts to no other - that thou mayest be glorified

Report has to be prepared concerning recruiting for church vocations and responsible Office to micrograph by Wednesday April 1st and make a report. Would you please let me know by Friday April 10th, what has been happening in your Presbytery, or what you plan to do concerning recruiting.
Some notes to note are -
- Has your Presbytery discussed recruiting? The Conference last year resolved to do so. With what results?
- Did any churches in your Presbytery recognize a Recruiting Sunday?
Any known results?
- Have any conferences or other meetings been arranged for recruiting, vocational students, etc. on church vocations?
- Have any conferences been held with schools and school counselors?
- Have any committees on church vocations been established in the districts?
- Have the U.C. been active in this field?
- Have you recruiting in any field of church vocations?
