At the time of starting the preparation of this Service,
I was almost convinced that the service they were the word for today.

is one thought liberated me - "Word day of Prayer for Students"

YEA! - Right →

am I almost to the place of believing? all I can do
for this day's student is pray for him..

By the time of finally, the preparation I was coming down
with a cold.

Have you ever noticed what the onset of a cold does
to our tolerance for boredom?

I needed a liberating word more than ever.

Because this little bit puts me in a bind:

I am bored out of my mind with so much against the Church for its failure → way - unfair
right - if no real help →

I am tired of going round the same circles of general analysis → as to what the present human situation is → given rise to failure of Church.

At the same time - Present Campus world
call out for a change.

Go-round anyway!

Think
ABOUT

MOSTLY we are not with a ministry to the academic community.
