MARK 15:22-39

DID JESUS HAVE TO BE KILLED?

The question on the title - is a come-on Pretending to pose as someone who can answer that one.

Some words Taken from 16th Chapter of Matt Verse 21

From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem
and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed
and on the third day be raised.

if I Assumed the pose - how answer - Did Jesus have to be killed pose one who could thank God's lawyers for Him.

Could I be

That Hidden within the various conons that brought us here is the call of God? Ponder over - what the almighty can do - I ~~will~~ ^{will} his how he benefits you.

Dear Father,

How can we ask for the Spirit and mean it? What if the word is returned and there don't give the Spirit to those who ask for it? What if the word will not return until those who will indeed believe and then believe in it.

She had it in her to destroy God.

Redemptive word to her - adequate.

Reb Bottom of what she was actually capable of if - God is Love - ^{we are} actually up to killing God.

No salvation can really save until it comes with that eventuality.

Let me have another try at setting this forth.

Enormous self discovers.

I was capable of killing God.

Redemptive word — adequate to real situation
adequate to that possibility — eventual.

Church — witness to God's Redemptive act in Jesus records — Jesus must go to Jerusalem & be killed
and on the third Day be raised.

less than this would not be a redemptive word
God can't finish when I have killed him.

(You see what I mean) The news is good. ^{It's something} to tell around.
