The following statements will be made during the baptism service this morning. They express something of the belief and intention of the parents whose children are to be received.

"We are here to acknowledge that these our children belong to God, to dedicate them to God in holy baptism, and to receive them again as from the hands of God so that they may become disciples of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ"

MICHAEL and ELIZABETH STEBBINGS

"We hope that our children will one day discover the importance of Jesus Christ's message, and we will help them to do this by giving them access to his teachings and by responding to the joy and blessing which they bring to our family life."

IAN and ANNE GARTSHORE

"We hope that our children will survive as persons in spite of our good intentions and bad judgments. We believe that if they do survive it will be by the grace of God."
